

AT THE BRYN MAWR HORSE SHOW. Isaac Clothier, Jr., going over a fence on one of the horses of the Clothier stables yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

MRS. VICTOR MATHER. She watched the doings from the side lines. Ledger Photo Service.

CHESHIRE FOX HOUNDS AT HORSE SHOW. They are grouped about their owner, W. Plunkett Stewart. Ledger Photo Service.

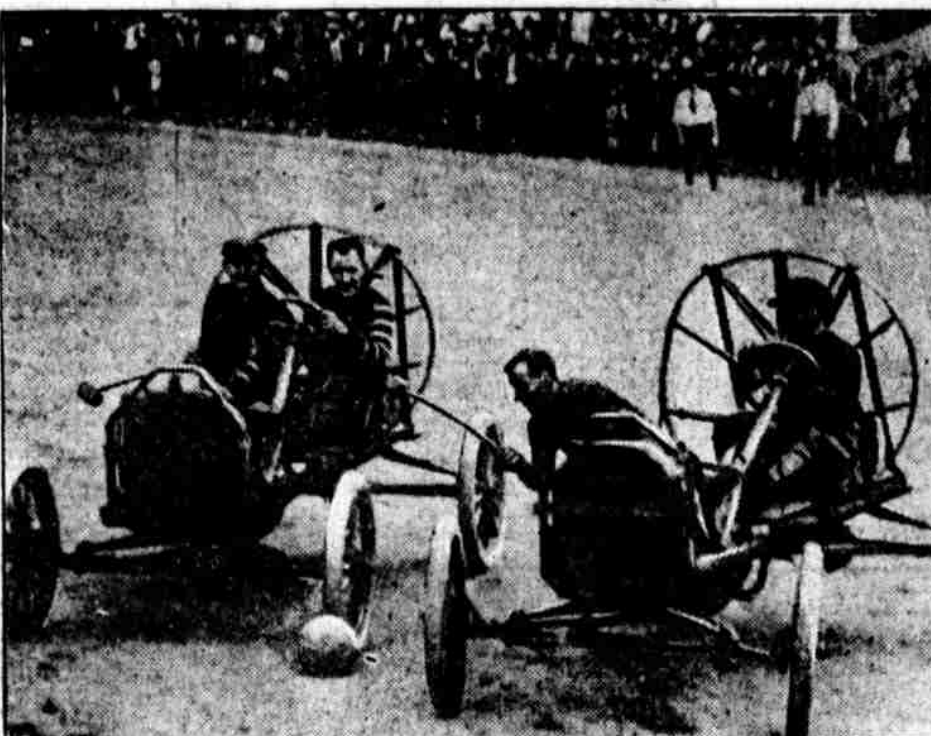

BUSY IN THE CAFETERIA. Mrs. Henry C. Earnshaw, a vice president of the Bryn Mawr horse show women's committee. Ledger Photo Service.

COACHING HER SISTER. Mrs. William Hamill, formerly Miss Constance Vaclain, is helping her sister, Miss Patty Vaclain, who has horses in fifteen class. Ledger Photo Service.

GIVE EXHIBITIONS AT TRENTON FAIR. Members of the Sixteenth Regiment, U. S. Infantry, from Camp Dix, were at the Trenton Fair, where they gave exhibition drill and gunfire practice. Ledger Photo Service.

AUTO POLO. The game was played at the Trenton Fair. Several upsets occurred during the contest, but a little lifting soon righted the machines and the games continued. Ledger Photo Service.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED. Miss Anita R. Kite, daughter of Commander and Mrs. I. W. Kite, to Frank Pierce Harmon. Harris & Ewing.

SCHOOLGIRLS HELP. Mildred E. Freeman, at the Hollingsworth School, Fifteenth and Locust streets, pointed the way for those who brought bundles of clothing to that school for the Near-East Relief during Bundle Day. Ledger Photo Service.

SHE RAISES CANARIES AND LIKES THE JOB. Mrs. Emily Fowler, of Washington, spends her time in studying the canary. She has trained many for moving-picture work. Underwood & Underwood.

COUNTRESS MARKIEVICZ, who was elected as a member of the British Parliament from Ireland, but never took her seat, has been arrested. She had assumed the name of Mrs. McDonald. Keystone View Co.

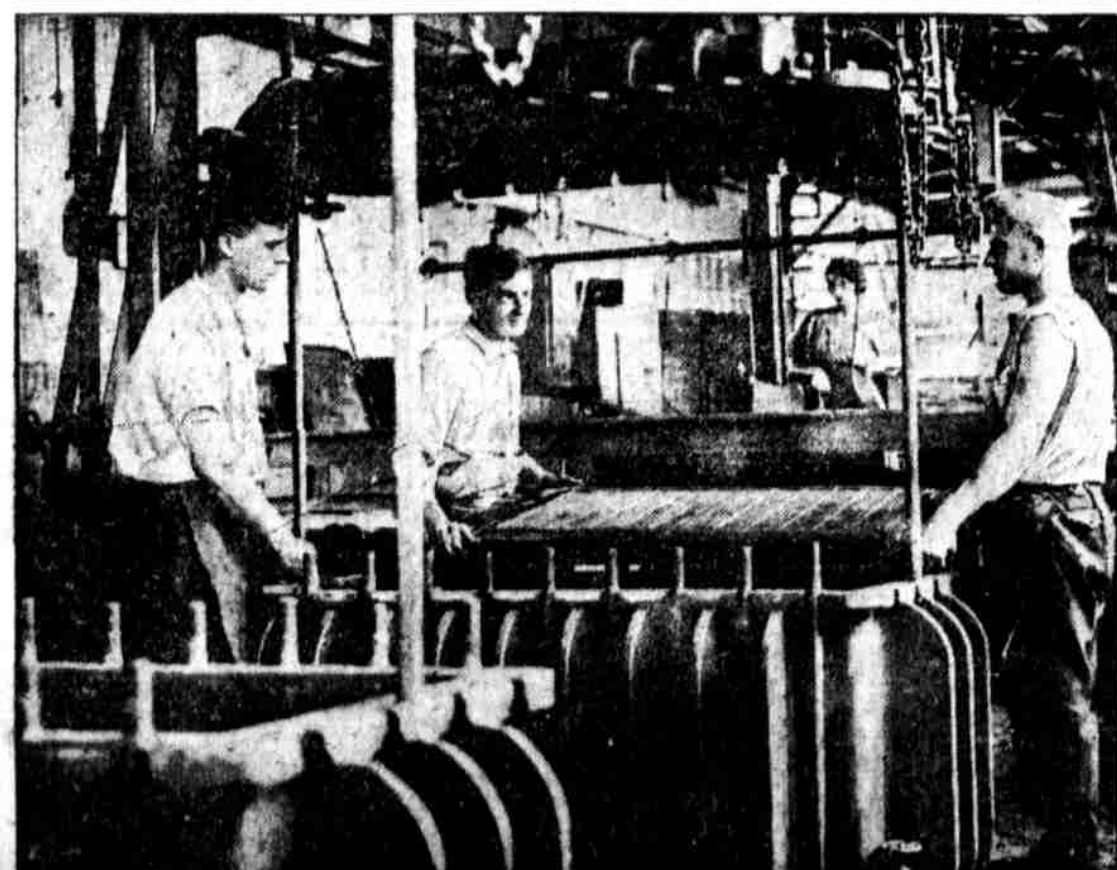

JUST BEFORE THE FIFTY-FOURTH HOME RUN. "Babe" Ruth wearing the cap and holding the base horn of a member of the St. Mary's Industrial Home Band, of Baltimore, at Shibe Park, just before the New York batsman made his fifty-fourth circuit for 1920. The horn helped in the serenade that followed the scoring. Ledger Photo Service.

SELECTED TO POSE AS MODEL WAR CANTEN WORKER. Miss Mittle Burch, of Washington, a Red Cross worker during the war, will pose for model to be dedicated by American airman to the American Red Cross as an appreciation for canteen comforts enjoyed in France. Central News Photo.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MAKING SAFETY GLASS WITH PRESSURE PRESS. This is done by high heat and tremendous pressure on the steam chests shown in the factory of the Safetee Glass Co., 326 North Broad street. The workers are Harry Heaton, Edward Henry and Dewey Russell. Ledger Photo Service.

MARKING ROOM NUMBER ON BAGGAGE. Miss Anna Rupert, of Wilmington, with her baggage at Bryn Mawr College. At the right is Miss Eleanor Brush, of Port Deposit, with a new crop of schoolbooks. Ledger Photo Service.

GENERAL ELECTRIC GIRLS PLAY BALL. The scene of yesterday's game was McCall Field, where an interested crowd looked on. At the left is Miss Anna Schechtman throwing a signal to her battery mate. At the right is a star first sacker, Miss Kathryn Harkey. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MARIE B. WHALEN. 2116 East Haines street, Philadelphia.